State General Education Course Description and Outcomes

This course aligns with the state-mandated course description and student learning outcomes specified below.

ECO 2013 - Principles of Macroeconomics

In this course, students will learn the foundations of macroeconomics as the branch of economics concerned with how decision-making, in an environment of scarcity, maps onto the aggregate economy. Students will examine theories and evidence related the following core set of topics: national income determination, money, monetary and fiscal policy, macroeconomic conditions, international trade and the balance of payments, and economic growth and development.

Student learning outcomes:

- Students will recognize that all decisions happen in an environment of scarcity.
- Students will examine theories and evidence regarding how changes in aggregate measurements are related to economic performance.
- Students will recognize the relationships between the components of the national income accounts.
- Students will analyze theory and evidence regarding fiscal and monetary policies and how they affect the economy.
- Students will identify theories of long-term economic growth and examine evidence for those theories.

Course Description and Purpose

The course covers all macroeconomic principles, their functions, and interaction. It also covers governmental intervention in our aggregate economy. It discusses monetary and fiscal policies, the role of central banking, intermediaries, supply and demand, and the business cycle.

Course Goals

Please view the Student Learning Outcomes/Objectives section for the course goals.

UCC Category Description

This course satisfies the University Core Curriculum Social Science: Group 1

Student Learning Outcomes/Objectives

Student learning outcomes allow faculty to assess the level of proficiency in content knowledge and skills that their students acquire in a course.

If the objective meets a special designation, you will see the code after the objective:

University Core Curriculum: UCC

Gordon Rule Writing: GRW

Global Learning: GL

Civic Literacy: CL

- Economic Foundations. Students will understand, analyze, and apply essential, fundamental economic terms, concepts, and theories.
- Key Macroeconomic Indicators and Fundamentals. Students will comprehend, evaluate, and utilize core, central macroeconomic terms, concepts, and theories.
- Short-Run Fluctuations and Models. Students will be able to evaluate economic issues and public policy by using economic models or data analysis while identifying underlying assumptions of the model(s) and limitations.
- Monetary and Fiscal Policy. Students will understand, describe, and explain the institutions in the United States that shape monetary and fiscal policy and as well as analyze, distinguish, and examine the processes these institutions use to achieve their goals in addressing issues of unemployment, inflation, exchange rates, balance of payments, and economic growth in a global context.
- The International Economy. Students will Examine and recognize the relevant benefits and costs of domestic and international economic policy choices, distinguishing arguments presented, and constructing alternative policy outcomes.

Expectations of the Course

This is an online course, which means most (if not all) of the coursework will be conducted online. Expectations for performance in an online course are the same for a traditional course. In fact, online courses require a degree of self-motivation, self-discipline, and technology skills which can make these courses more demanding for some students.

Students are expected to:

- Review the Learn to Use Canvas module if needed

- Post your Student Bio during the first week in the appropriate discussion forum
- Take the practice quiz to ensure that your computer is compatible with Canvas
- Interact online with your instructor and peers
- Review and follow the course calendar
- Log in to the course daily
- Respond to messages daily
- Submit assignments and exams by the corresponding deadline

The instructor will:

- Log in to the course daily
- Respond to messages daily, otherwise, students will be notified
- Grade assignments within 3-7 days of the assignment deadline, based on the number of student enrolled

Panther Book Pack

FIU has implemented the Panther Book Pack rental program, which provides your required print and digital course materials at a flat rate of $20 per undergraduate credit hour. When you registered for your classes this session, you were notified via email of the required course materials that are included in the Panther Book Pack. The Panther Book Pack program applies to all undergraduate credit hours per academic session. I recommend that you review the pricing for all materials across your classes this session compared to the Panther Book Pack flat rate. If the Panther Book Pack is not your best option, you may opt-out up to three days after the add/drop deadline. You may opt back into the Panther Book Pack up to three days after the add/drop deadline. If you do not opt out of the Panther Book Pack rental program, you will be charged $20 per credit hour and the course materials will be reserved for you for the undergraduate courses for which you are registered. For more details, visit onestop.fiu.edu/bookpack.

Course Communication

Communication in this course will take place via the Canvas Inbox. Check out the Canvas Conversations Tutorial or Canvas Guide to learn how to communicate with your instructor and peers using Announcements, Discussions, and the Inbox. I will respond to all correspondences within 24 hours.

Discussion Forums

Keep in mind that your discussion forum postings will likely be seen by other members of the course. Care should be taken when determining what to post.

Assignments

Student Bio Activity:

This activity will be posted on the Discussion Forum, which can be accessed from the left-hand navigation menu.

During the first week of class, every student should create his/her own student bio (No longer than 500 words).

You are encouraged to include following in your bio: name, status (freshman/sophomore/junior/senior), your reason for taking this course, your expectation of this course, your experience with any aspect of online learning (do you love it? hate it? why?), career plans (it's OK to be unsure!), favorite hobby. You also have a choice of attaching your photo (optional but recommended).

Macroeconomic Topics: Essay and Discussion Assignments:

There will be a total of 1 essay assignment 6 Discussion Assignments.

The purpose of selecting particular topics is to create a learning environment and allow students to enhance their knowledge of the principles of macroeconomics. The topics are designed to enhance the student's knowledge by researching the topic, reading, and extrapolating the knowledge in writing and formatting it for grading purposes.

The purpose of the discussions is to simulate a typical classroom discussion, frame, and promote collaborative learning.

You're expected to complete the essay and discussions on your own.

You need to format your answers according to all the instructions (exactly) given below. Any violation will result in a point deduction.

Essay Directions: 300-350 words

- Do not repeat the questions in your submission; just provided responses.
- Provide three (3) references required when assignment requires.
- Late submissions will receive 50% of the grade.
- Use your own wording, by researching, taking notes, and writing your own understanding
- Must be independently researched.
- Must be completely free of grammatical, punctuation, and spelling errors.
- One point will be deducted for each violation.

- Late submissions will receive 50% of the grade if submitted within 24 hours of the deadline.

Essay-Specific Directions:

- Use Times New Roman, 12pt font, double-spaced, 1-inch margins.
- Must be submitted as a word document (doc, docx) -- Canvas will not accept other file types.

Discussion-Specific Directions:

- Each discussion forum is worth 4 points. You may earn 2 points for your response to the discussion question (250-300 words) and 2 points for commenting on one classmate's post (100) words.
- Use the rubric and the prompts to fashion the post
- After posting your original response, be sure to read the posts of other students and respond to at least one classmate. You must state and explain what you agree or disagree with the posting you are analyzing.
- To maximize your points, be sure to post giving others enough time to respond to your post.
- Pay attention to grammar and sentence mechanics and use proper netiquette.
- Late submissions will receive 50% (2 points) of the grade if submitted along with two replies to other students. Otherwise, make up discussions without replies to other students get only (1) point.

Assessments

There will be four exams (56 points total, 14 points each). All exams are fully online.

All exams consist of 50 multiple-choice questions. Each exam will be available for one day from 12:01 am to 11:30 pm, eastern time. Once you open an exam, you will have 75 minutes to complete and submit it.

Important: Although you will be allowed to begin your exam at any time before 11:30 pm, it will be automatically submitted by the system at 11:30 PM. To get the full 75 minutes for the exam, you must begin by 10:00 PM.

Exams are not cumulative. Students are to work alone; collaboration is not allowed. Questions will be randomized and taken from a pool. To successfully complete the exam on a timely basis, be familiar with the content. If you want to review your results, you must make an appointment with the professor. No exam results will be available online.

In order to mitigate any issues with your computer and online assessments, it is very important that you take the "Practice Quiz" from each computer you will be using to take your exams. It is your responsibility to make sure your computer meets the minimum hardware requirements.

Missed Exams Policy

A missed exam cannot be taken online anymore. Students must notify professor within 24 hours of the deadline. Students have the option of taking it proctored or receiving 50% of the grade.

Policies

Please read this section carefully before you proceed to the rest of the syllabus.

1. This is a fully online course that provides flexibility to complete exams and assignments.
2. If you take a vacation, you still need to fulfill your responsibilities with regard to assignments and exam deadlines.
3. I will not elevate the final average to the next highest decimal, even if it is a minuscule amount.
4. Please read the Syllabus carefully, line by line and ensure that you submit assignments timely and allow sufficient time to take your exams (do not start your exam at 11:00 pm, or submit your assignment at 11:29 pm).

Please review the FIU's Policies webpage. The policies webpage contains essential information regarding guidelines relevant to all courses at FIU, as well as additional information about acceptable netiquette for online courses. For additional information, please visit FIU's Policy and Procedure Library.

As a member of the FIU community, you are expected to be knowledgeable about the behavioral expectations set forth in the FIU Student Conduct and Honor Code.

Technical Requirements and Skills

One of the greatest barriers to student success is a lack of basic computer literacy. By computer literacy, we mean being able to manage and organize computer files efficiently and learning to use your computer's operating system and software quickly and easily. Keep in mind that this is not a computer literacy course, but students enrolled in online courses are expected to have moderate proficiency in using a computer. Please go to the What's Required webpage to find out more information on this subject

Academic Integrity

Florida International University is a community dedicated to generating and imparting knowledge through excellent teaching and research, the rigorous and respectful exchange of ideas, and community service. All students should respect the right of others to have an equitable opportunity to learn and honestly demonstrate the quality of their learning. Therefore, all students are expected to adhere to a standard of academic conduct, which demonstrates respect for themselves, their fellow students, and the educational mission of the University. All students are deemed by the University to understand that if they are found responsible for academic misconduct, they will be subject to the Academic Misconduct procedures and sanctions, as outlined in the Student Conduct and Honor Code.

Academic Misconduct includes:

Cheating

- The unauthorized use of any materials, information, study aids or assistance from another person on any academic assignment or exercise, unless explicitly authorized by the course Instructor;
- Assisting another student in the unauthorized use of any materials, information, study aids, unless explicitly authorized by the Instructor; and
- Having a substitute complete any academic assignment or completing an academic assignment for someone else, either paid or unpaid;

Plagiarism

- The deliberate use and appropriation of another's work without any indication of the source and the representation of such work as the Student's own.
- Assisting another student in the deliberate use and appropriation of another's work without any indication of the source and the representation of such work as the student's own.
