General Information

Course Description and Purpose

This course focuses on the role of the government in the economy. The goal is to understand the reasons for government intervention in the economy, and analyzing the direct and indirect effects of possible government policies. The course covers topics such as externalities, political economy, public goods, social insurance and taxation.

Learning Outcomes and Objectives

Upon successful completion of the course, the student should be able to:

- Explain the basic theories and tools of public economics
- Understand the system of taxation and redistribution
- Understand market failures and externalities
- Understand the government provision of public goods
- Understand how social insurance works

Expectations of the Course

Attendance/Participation

From my past experience, students who attended classes did well in the end. For that reason, you are expected to attend every lecture. There will be in-class activities that count toward your final grades.

Course Communication

Announcements in this course will be sent via the Canvas Inbox and email. Please check your Canvas Inbox and emails on a regular basis.

Course Layout

We will finish 4 modules. There is a total of 3 exams.

Late Work Policy

No late submissions will be accepted. Please plan on being able to submit with ample time to handle technical glitches.

Make-up Policy

Excused absences include illness, serious family emergencies, military obligation, severe weather conditions, religious holidays, and participation in official university activities such as music performances, athletic competition or debate. Absences from class for court-imposed legal obligations (e.g., jury duty or subpoena) must be excused. Other reasons also may be approved. If you miss an exam due to the above reasons, it is your responsibility to contact me as soon as possible to schedule a makeup exam.

I reserve the right to ask you to provide valid documentations. Missing excessive days (3 weeks) due to excused absences may lead to failure of the course.

Homework Assignments

Homework assignments can be accessed through the "Assignments" tab on Canvas course page. Assignments are to be completed and submitted online through Canvas. No late submissions will be accepted. Please plan on being able to submit with ample time to handle technical glitches. I will drop the lowest score to correct for unforeseen circumstances that prevent you from submitting the homework.

Exams

Exams are not cumulative. Exam 1 covers Module 1 and 2. Exam 2 covers Module 3. Exam 3 covers Module 4. They are to be taken in the classroom.

In-Class Activities

There will be many in-class activities throughout the semester. They are random. Please bring a blank sheet of paper to write on with you to every lecture. In case you miss a lecture due to unforeseen circumstances, I will drop the lowest two in-class activities.

Academic Misconduct Statement

Florida International University is a community dedicated to generating and imparting knowledge through excellent teaching and research, the rigorous and respectful exchange of ideas, and community service. All students should respect the right of others to have an equitable opportunity to learn and honestly to demonstrate the quality of their learning. Therefore, all students are expected to adhere to a standard of academic conduct, which demonstrates respect for themselves, their fellow students, and the educational mission of the University. All students are deemed by the University to understand that if they are found responsible for academic misconduct, they will be subject to the Academic Misconduct procedures and sanctions, as outlined in the Student Handbook.

AI Policy

Since writing, analytical, and critical thinking skills are part of the learning outcomes of this course, all assignments should be prepared by the student.

Developing strong competencies in this area will prepare you for a competitive workplace. Therefore, AI-generated submissions are not permitted and will be treated as plagiarism.

Ethics still matter and plagiarism is a serious offense.

Classroom Policy

FIU prides itself as a community of diverse backgrounds: ethnic, racial, religious, cultural, social, political, economic, gender, sexual orientation, age, and ability. The University encourages, supports and appreciates these differences, and discourages all forms of prejudice, bias, bigotry, discrimination, and intimidation in the process of learning.

Disruptive behaviors are prohibited in classroom. They include behaviors that substantially and materially disrupt, disturb, impair, interfere with or obstruct the orderly conduct, processes, and functions of the classroom.

Accessibility and Accommodation

If you have a documented disability and are a client of the FIU Disability Resource Center (DRC), please have the DRC send any pertinent information directly to my FIU email address so any necessary accommodations can be made in a timely fashion. The FIU Disability Resources Center strives to promote student success by working collaboratively with students, faculty and staff to create an inclusive educational environment. The university is committed to advancing students learning and enhancing personal development. Any information provided will be kept confidential. Documentation of your disability will need to be sent to the Disability Resource Center (GC 190).

Religious Observance

Accommodations will be made for students who wish to observe their religious holidays. Please contact me at the beginning of the semester if you need to excuse your absence due to religious holidays.
