General Information

Course Description and Purpose

This course is meant to give students insight into the dynamics of our national economy. The knowledge gained in the course will make students better informed citizens and allow them to follow the debates over national economic policy reported in the news media. This course is also a foundation course that will prepare students to be successful in upper division finance, marketing, business administration, economics, government, and social work courses.

Learning Outcomes and Objectives

Upon successful completion of the course, the student should be able to:

- Explain the basic premises and tools of economic thinking
- Use economic thinking to explain choice in a world of scarcity
- Analyze how buyers and sellers interact in a free and competitive market to determine prices and quantities of goods
- Evaluate applications of supply and demand, including price floors, price ceilings, and taxes

- Calculate GDP and use it to evaluate economic performance
- Evaluate macroeconomic performance using indicators that include unemployment and inflation
- Describe and analyze the sources of economic growth
- Understand that economic growth is a relatively recent phenomenon, and identify key institutional factors and policies that contribute to economic growth
- Explain Keynesian economics using the Income-Expenditure Model
- Utilize and construct the aggregate demand-aggregate supply model to analyze the economy
- Explain the role of money and banking in an economy
- Explain and analyze monetary policy and the role of the Federal Reserve
- Understand what government budgets consist of and describe the uses and implications of fiscal policy
- Analyze the benefits and costs of international trade and globalization
- Examine exchange rates and the way they influence international trade

Expectations of the Course

Attendance/Participation

From my past experience, students who attended classes did well in the end. For that reason, you are expected to attend every lecture. There will be in-class activities that count toward your final grades.

Course Communication

Announcements in this course will be sent via the Canvas Inbox and email. Please check your Canvas Inbox and emails on a regular basis.

Course Layout

We will finish 6 modules/14 chapters. Each module consists of 2 or 3 chapters from the textbook and has a homework assignment. There will be 1 exam every 2 modules, so there is a total of 3 exams.

Late Work Policy

No late submissions will be accepted. Please plan on being able to submit with ample time to handle technical glitches.

Make-up Policy

Excused absences include illness (related or not related to COVID), serious family emergencies, military obligation, severe weather conditions, religious holidays, and participation in official university activities such as music performances, athletic competition or debate. Absences from class for court-imposed legal obligations (e.g., jury duty or subpoena) must be excused. Other reasons also may be approved. If you miss an exam due to the above reasons, it is your responsibility to contact me as soon as possible to schedule a makeup exam.

I reserve the right to ask you to provide valid documentations. Missing excessive days (3 weeks) due to excused absences may lead to failure of the course.

Course Detail

Course Prerequisites

There are no prerequisites for this course.

Recommended Textbook

Principles of Macroeconomics

Author: N. Gregory Mankiw

Edition: 8th. Older or newer editions also work.

ISBN-13: 978-1305971509

Homework Assignments

Each module has an assignment that can be accessed through the "Assignments" tab on Canvas course page. Assignments are to be completed and submitted online through Canvas. No late submissions will be accepted. Please plan on being able to submit with ample time to handle technical glitches. I will drop the lowest score to correct for unforeseen circumstances that prevent you from doing homework.

Exams

Exams are not cumulative. Exam 1 covers Module 1 and 2. Exam 2 covers Module 3 and 4. Exam 3 covers Module 5 and 6. Each exam consists of 30 multiple choice questions. They will be taken in the classroom.

Discussion Forums

You'll need to submit 3 reading reports in the "Discussions" tab throughout the semester. Follow the instructions of each discussion assignment. Keep in mind that your discussion forum postings will likely be seen by other members of the course. Care should be taken when determining what to post.

Academic Misconduct Statement

Florida International University is a community dedicated to generating and imparting knowledge through excellent teaching and research, the rigorous and respectful exchange of ideas, and community service. All students should respect the right of others to have an equitable opportunity to learn and honestly to demonstrate the quality of their learning. Therefore, all students are expected to adhere to a standard of academic conduct, which demonstrates respect for themselves, their fellow students, and the educational mission of the University. All students are deemed by the University to understand that if they are found responsible for academic misconduct, they will be subject to the Academic Misconduct procedures and sanctions, as outlined in the Student Handbook.

Classroom Policy

FIU prides itself as a community of diverse backgrounds: ethnic, racial, religious, cultural, social, political, economic, gender, sexual orientation, age, and ability. The University encourages, supports and appreciates these differences, and discourages all forms of prejudice, bias, bigotry, discrimination, and intimidation in the process of learning.

Disruptive behaviors are prohibited in classroom. They include behaviors that substantially and materially disrupt, disturb, impair, interfere with or obstruct the orderly conduct, processes, and functions of the classroom.

Accessibility and Accommodation

If you have a documented disability and are a client of the FIU Disability Resource Center (DRC), please have the DRC send any pertinent information directly to my FIU email address so any necessary accommodations can be made in a timely fashion. The FIU Disability Resources Center strives to promote student success by working collaboratively with students, faculty and staff to create an inclusive educational environment. The university is committed to advancing students learning and enhancing personal development. Any information provided will be kept confidential. Documentation of your disability will need to be sent to the Disability Resource Center (GC 190).

Religious Observance

Accommodations will be made for students who wish to observe their religious holidays. Please contact me at the beginning of the semester if you need to excuse your absence due to religious holidays.

Panthers Care & Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS)

If you are looking for help for yourself or a fellow classmate, Panthers Care encourages you to express any concerns you may come across as it relates to any personal behavior concerns or worries you have, for the classmate's well-being or yours; you are encouraged to share your concerns with FIU's Panthers Care website. \(Links to an external site.\)

Counseling and Psychological Services \(CAPS\) \(Links to an external site.\) offers free and confidential help for anxiety, depression, stress, and other concerns that life brings. Covid-19 Related Information

- Daily and before arriving to campus, complete the P3 app. If you are not given the green check mark to enter campus, then return home, and contact me by email.
- Please check your FIU email account and your Canvas course at least once a day. Email and Canvas are the best ways for the university, and your professors, to contact you.

- If you do not feel well, have tested positive for COVID-19, or have been in contact with a person with COVID-19 while not yet being fully vaccinated, please do not come to class, immediately complete the P3 app to notify the COVID Response Team or call them at 305-348-1919, and contact me by email as soon as you can. In order to receive an excused absence for P3 failure/COVID-19, you must contact the COVID Response Team (CRT) at 305-348-1919. You can request a letter to excuse your absence from class by contacting the CRT.
- Per recent CDC guidelines, a vaccinated, asymptomatic individual exposed to a COVID-19 positive person does not need to isolate or quarantine. Nevertheless, it is strongly encouraged to continue to wear a mask. Furthermore, it is recommended to get tested 3-5 days after a known exposure. However, if at any time you become symptomatic, you need to test immediately. If the test returns positive, you will need to follow the COVID-19 positive protocol at that time.
 1. “Asymptomatic” means (of a condition or a person) producing or showing no symptoms.
 2. “Symptomatic” means exhibiting or involving symptoms.
 3. People with COVID-19 have had a wide range of symptoms reported – ranging from mild symptoms to severe illness. Symptoms may appear 2-14 days after exposure to the virus. Anyone can have mild to severe symptoms. People with these symptoms may have COVID-19:
 - Fever or chills
 - Cough
 - Shortness of breath or difficulty breathing
 - Fatigue
 - Muscle or body aches
 - Headache
 - New loss of taste or smell
 - Sore throat
 - Congestion or runny nose
 - Nausea or vomiting
 - Diarrhea
 4. Please take every precaution to keep yourself and others healthy. Per CDC guidelines, you are encouraged to get vaccinated and strongly advised to wear a mask indoors and in public including all FIU facilities.
 5. Missing excessive days may lead to failing a class or a grade of incomplete.
 6. For me to assist you in achieving your goals, it is important for you to contact me as soon as you experience any events that might disrupt your course participation. For up-to-date information about COVID-19, please see the fiu.edu FAQs.
 7. Please be advised that class content may be subject to streaming or course capture for future access by students in this course. Your attendance/participation in this course constitutes consent to such recording.

This course satisfies the University Core Curriculum for Social Sciences Group One (FIU required) as supported by the following learning outcomes for our course.
